

On the One Year Anniversary of the election of President Obama, there is still:

“Change...” Worth Fighting For!!

On Tuesday, November 3, the first anniversary of the election of President Barack Obama, Chicago leaders will gather in front of Grant Park to rally our support for the “Change” we believe is worth fighting for.

Press Conference / Rally with sign-on letter to President Obama

Date:	Tuesday, November 3, 2009
Time:	11:30 – 1:00 pm
Place:	Spertus College, 610 S. Michigan (facing Grant Park)

Support the Change we still believe in fighting for!

- Health care reform with a strong public insurance option
- Immigration reform
- Ensure worker rights to organize
- Full, equitable inclusion of the LGBT communities and women
- Living wage jobs
- Reform of the financial system to end predatory practices that cause home foreclosures and bankruptcies
- Addressing our warming planet
- Creating a more peaceful world

Initial Supporting Organizations: ActionNOW; AFSCME; Aids Foundation of Chicago; Asian American Institute; Centro Romero; Celts for Immigration Reform; Chicago Coalition for the Homeless; Citizen Action Illinois; Equality Illinois; HealthCare for America Now (HCAN); Illinois Coalition for Immigrant and Refugee Rights (ICIRR); Instituto del Progreso Latino; Jewish Council on Urban Affairs; Mujeres Latinas en Accion; Rainbow PUSH; Rep. Greg Harris; Rep. Will Burns; SEIU; Sen. Kwame Raoul; Shriver Center on Poverty Law; Unite HERE; United African Organization